TO ALL MEMBERS OF THIS COMMAND

★

On this festive occasion it is a pleasure to relax and consider what has transpired during the year throughout the World.

The Chinese have continued to harass the enemy and carry on aggressively in spite of their hunger and lack of combat supplies. The allies carry on in Europe. The Russians are demonstrating the quality we admire so much in the prize fighter—i.e. the ability and guts to pick himself off the floor and proceed to knock out the antagonist. Our pals in the Solomon area are not getting their meals very regularly and they don't have feather pillows on which to rest their heads.

Certainly we should feel ashamed of any alleged hardships and should be thankful for the luxuries that are showered on us, and for the opportunity of putting in long hours of service for our sick and wounded.
